

HUMANE SOCIETY VETERINARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Do you have an interest in animal protection and welfare?

Are you concerned about animal use in veterinary education?

Join an HSVMA student chapter!

The Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association (HSVMA) student chapters provide a forum for veterinary students to get involved in animal protection issues, promote humane veterinary education, and participate in service opportunities.

Join the HSVMA student chapter to:

- Connect with like-minded students
- Stay up-to-date on veterinary student issues as they relate to animal welfare
- Learn about humane alternatives in veterinary curriculum
- Learn about animal protection topics

Student chapter members can also receive free HSVMA membership through their first year after graduation!
